

CV of Kim Moreton

1. I, Kim Moreton, am a Chartered Land Surveyor (MRICS), by examination, working in the field of boundary demarcation and boundary disputes.
2. I received my professional training at the Camborne School of Mines/University of Exeter, and surveying experience in private practice from 2007. That training included: -Topographic Surveying, Engineering Surveying, Land Management and Law, modern land surveying techniques and the principles and application of land and environmental management.
3. I sit on the United Kingdom Education Standards Board of the R.I.C.S. (Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors).
4. I am an APC (Assessment of Professional Competence) Counsellor for RICS (Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors) Membership Candidates.
5. As Counsellor, I am responsible for ensuring that the candidates gain the required range and depth of experience and training, and can demonstrate competence in preparation for their final assessment for election to Membership of the R.I.C.S.
6. I am a member of the UKELA – United Kingdom Environmental Law Association, and sit on the South West regional committee.
7. I lecture in Law for Surveyors, Land Management, Mineral Rights and Advanced Engineering Surveying at the Camborne School of Mines, now part of the University of Exeter. My courses are accredited by the R.I.C.S. and by the I.O.M.M.M. (Institute of Materials, Minerals and Mining).
8. I am a former Vice-Chairman of the R.I.C.S. (Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors) Cornwall Association.
9. I am the former Chairman of the R.I.C.S. (Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors) Guidance Note Committee for The Mundic Problem, a best practice document that is approved by the R.I.C.S. and endorsed by the R.I.B.A. (Royal Institute of British Architects), the C.M.L. (Council of Mortgage Lenders), and the I.C.E. (Institution of Civil Engineers).
10. I have given presentations on Land contamination and Mining risks at R.I.C.S. (Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors) seminars.
11. My OS (Ordnance Survey) Copyright Licence and Digital Copyright Licence Number is ES-100020329

